

Jordan Hanson

Rhythmic Journey

Drumming Workshops

- ◆ Hands-on learning experience using professional hand drums and xylophones
- ◆ One drum per participant is provided, staff included
- ◆ Maximum 30 students per session, 5 sessions per day (150 students per day maximum unless otherwise pre-arranged)
- ◆ Develops listening skills, creative expression, and group co-operation
- ◆ Cultural, linguistic and geographic information is offered
- ◆ Study guide “Rhythm 101” is available for students and teachers
- ◆ Available in English or French or Spanish

Sample Schedule (Start times will be adjusted to fit your bell schedule)

9:00 AM Workshop 1

9:45 AM Workshop 2

11:00 AM Workshop 3

1:00 PM Workshop 4

2:00 PM Workshop 5

One of the above workshops can be substituted with Jordan’s solo performance for the whole school.

---

Jordan Hanson studied music in West Africa, Cuba, and Brazil. His enthusiasm for drumming is contagious and he is able to get new students playing rhythms together within a few minutes.

Jordan teaches at the School of Music at the University of Victoria and has guest lectured at over a dozen universities across Canada. His programs for schools, community and organizations have been the subject of over 50 national and international radio and television features. From coast to coast, Jordan has now taught more than 250,000 Canadians how to drum!

<http://worldbeatdrumming.com/>

KEVIN BRUCE
ARTS MGMT.